when we moved to Salt Lake City in 1970, some of the first people to welcome us to their home were Ginny and John. We shared so many good memories with this family and watched their children grow up. My deepest sympathy in your loss of Ginny. Love, Barbara Halliday

Such a sweet women. I would always enjoy our conversations. Some times I'd come in to say hi, pet your dog. I would end up staying in your room chit chatting with you for almost an hour!
