Cindy, You were very kind and easy going. Everybody that met you adored you and appreciated your talents. Music was one of many, I remember playing your drum set and you started playing your guitar and you went into some Creedence Clearwater Revival and we both collaborated on it. I can't remember what song but it just all fell together and we had a lot of fun. You and I worked together at Big Lots and you were the best employee in the whole company, I could always count on you to get the job done every time. I didn't know you for a very long time but you were the type of person that was kind, easy going, understanding and listened. You made me feel that I knew you forever. Thanks for the great times, laughter and empathetic conversations. Thank you for your friendship and the difficult job yet rewarding of raising your grandsons when Angela passed. It takes a strong and special person to take on such responsibilities. That there within itself along with other tasks that you took control of defines the strong and type of person that you are. May you now walk with Jesus in the kingdom of heaven for eternity.
