Larry Don Davidson

JUN 3, 1942 - OCT 13, 2019

Larry Don Davidson graduated from this life peacefully on October 13, 2019. He was born on June 3, 1942 in Salt Lake City, UT to the parents of Don Wilson Davidson and Zona Alva Hansen.

Larry Don attended Blaine Elementary, Central Junior High, and Graduated from Granite High School in 1960.

Larry Don spent most of his life in the Salt Lake area but also lived in Phoenix, Az, Reno, NV and then returned to his home state.

He enjoyed visiting all of the Utah National Parks, especially Zions, Bryce, the Arches and the Canyonlands.

He loved camping at Smith & Morehouse which is 20 miles East of Park City, UT, Here he had lots of good times with family and friends.

Larry Don was a talented, creative floral designer.

He was an artist at heart and created many floral arrangements and other artistic designs for his many clients.

He was a very independent person and lived a full live with lots of travel with close friends.

Larry Don will be missed by his surviving three brothers; Richard Charles Davidson Sr, Patrick Allen Davidson and Roger Wayne Davidson and two sisters Diana Lee Russon and Donna Zona Campbell as well as many nieces and nephews.

He is preceded in death by his father Don Wilson Davidson and his Mother Zona Alva Hansen Davidson.

Larry Don requested that his ashes be scattered at his favorite camping place.
