I love you so much. It feels like you just barely left us. It's crazy to think we're approaching 2 years. I think of you every single day and my heart hurts for you constantly. I'd give anything to have one more moment with you. You'll forever be the love of my life, and my heart will always be yours. I love you baby.

Your birthday is approaching and so is the day you left us and changed my life forever. I'm struggling so bad right now. I just love you so much and miss you constantly. You left me with a broken heart for life. I'm not okay without you, I never was, and probably never will be. It still doesn't feel real some days, and for a split second I want to call or text you as if you've never left and then reality instantly suffocates me. I don't know what to do without you Manny. I'm just so lost and drowning in hurt.

I love you so much Manny. I'm so heartbroken. I don't know how to deal with you never coming home, never hearing your voice, never seeing you again, and never being loved by you again. I wish I could talk to you one last time, touch you one last time, kiss you one more time, and tell you how much I love you. I'll love you forever and always ❤️❤️❤️❤️
