Steven

AUG 5, 196

We are heartbroken to share the passing of Steve Peters, beloved husband to Colleen Rogers Peters, father to Nicholas and August 5, 1960 to Beverly and Robert Peters. After his mother's passing at a young age, Stevens father remarried Barbra other lives, his art and sign designs all throughout the valley, and passing out his hand folded cranes for hope to all those he met.

Steve lived a full and adventurous life in Salt Lake City, Utah. He found true joy in the great outdoors—whether by camping with his wife and family, easy smile and a knack for conversation, Steve connected effortlessly with everyone he met. While also being stubborn and set in his ways and always

Steven loved telling stories of his siblings and their wild childhood and all the trouble they would get in. From throwing snowballs at cars, climbing trees, years at Salt Lake City Community College before falling into his career as an artist. He fell in love young and married wife Colleen on October 9, 198

As an artist and graphic designer, he has worked throughout the valley to design the signs we drive past every day, leaving behind a beautiful legacy. From the space at the salt flats, and puttering around his Club Shed on miscellaneous projects.

At home, Steve's happiest moments were tending the garden with Colleen, his soulmate and constant companion. Their backyard was not just a patch of

He is preceded in death by his parents, Robert, Beverly, and Barbra, his sister Susan (Steve), brother Greg (Lisa). He is survived by his wife Colleen, children,

I always loved sitting at the campfire that Steve built. He was a kind and positive person, he taught me to fold cranes and shared some of his favorite origami paper with me. Together we enjoyed searching for rocks in southern Utah or agates at Deception Pass in Washington state. You will be deeply missed. We love you Steve!
