Our loving brother, Douglas S. Sharp, lost his battle with addiction February 5, 2020. Doug came to the Sharp family as a young boy from Nevada with his brother Kelly and loved his new family. Many happy memories were made with his new brothers and sisters at his side and now his mother and father greet him with open loving arms on the other side. Doug loved to work and had many jobs throughout his life. Red Lion, Albertson's and Harmon's grocery, were a few. Doug was a kind and gentle man who had many friends. He loved to play the piano, drive his 1976 Camero, feed his puppy Gizmo, and hang with his buddy and roommate Jonathan. Doug was a member of the LDS Church. He was also a proud member of the Washoe Tribe in Nevada and loved his heritage. Doug will be especially missed by his younger brother Nate who tried really hard to love him and keep close.

He is survived by many brothers, sisters, nieces and nephews.

“ I think it was our junior year at Hillcrest. We had a math class together. Mr. Quintero was the teacher. Mr. Quintero had an accent and could not say Sharp. It came out Charp. He could not say my name at all so he just called me Charlie. We had a test one day and no disrespect to Doug but Mr. Quintero called out "watch out Charlie Charps lookin over your Choulder". Everyone thought that was pretty funny. I really only new Doug as Sharp, but I always thought he was friendly and nice.
