“ I am better with numbers than words, so I share others words often.
" Love is stronger than death even though it can't stop death from happening, but no matter how hard death tries it can't separate people from love. It can't take away our memories either. In the end, life is stronger than death." --Unknown

I still remember the times at grandma's house.

“ Rob and I have been good friends for so many years. We've had lots and lots of good times as well as a few trying times...Yet through it all, we remained close. Rob is one of the truest friend's I've had in my life.

Rob was always there for me when I needed him...Whether I was moving, trying to fixi something, in need of a shoulder to cry on, or just enjoying watching our favorite 80s bands on YouTube.

This past year was such a tough time for Rob. He was always so strong and worked so hard and it was sad to see his frustration as he lost the strength and ability to do all the things he had always done.

We talked alot this past year about our feelings on dying, and what lies ahead.

We laughed together. We cried together and I will miss him terribly. I will always love you Robert Ostler. Rest in Peace my friend.

“ Rob and I had many good times. He was a great person and friend. His family was close to mine during our teens. Peggy used to cut my hair, I went to a Barry Manilow concert with Theresa, and was there when Phil passed. All the memories I have won't be forgotten...RIP Rob and my condolences to the family..
